

The Cellar Café Newsletter Summer 2016

The Cellar team wish you a very pleasant Summer! Come and enjoy a cup of coffee or a meal in the sunny courtyard. Remember that Debbie also sells ice creams and snacks in aid of The Cellar at the Godalming Bandstand concerts every Sunday afternoon. Here's a special invitation for a Cellar event at the bandstand.

Manna Ministries & The Cellar Café Present

THE SOUND OF SUMMER

My mouth is filled with your praise, declaring your splendour all day long,
Psalm 71:8

Saturday August 13th 1pm - 3pm at the Godalming Bandstand

Chris Jagger, our chair of trustees, entertains passers-by singing with his guitar outside The Cellar in Crown Court in Saturdays. He met members of Manna Ministries, and they have joined forces with The Cellar for a wonderful afternoon of music, dance and drama at Godalming Bandstand on Saturday August 13th.

Manna Ministries is a Christian charity who run performing arts classes for children from the age of four and for adults. They raise funds to support charitable work for individuals and groups in UK and in the developing world. The concert is free, and donations will be collected from the audience for The Cellar and Manna Ministries. Do come along and enjoy this special event.

Come and join us for an afternoon of Musical Theatre, Song and Dance performed by a company of children and adults

Line Up : Scenes from The Sound of Music, Manna Mums Choir, Manna Dance Team, Musical and Vocal Recitals and More

A Royal treat for The Cellar

Like me, you may have enjoyed watching the Queen's 90th birthday celebrations at Windsor on television. Waitrose was one the official partners of this event, and the Godalming branch nominated The Cellar manager, Debbie Portsmouth, to receive two tickets, as a thank you for her services to the local community.

On 12th May she and Kath Benny, a Cellar trustee, were guests at the Waitrose hospitality tent and then enjoyed ringside seats at the pageant. It was "a night to remember" with parades of marching bands and equestrian feats from all over the world accompanied by the commentary of her majesty's life on this very special occasion. Thank you Waitrose, and Happy Birthday Your Majesty!

The Cellar relies on donations from individuals, local groups, churches and charities to support vulnerable people in the community. We are very grateful for recent grants from Waverley Voluntary Partnership, The Bishop of Guildford's Fund through Community Foundation for Surrey, Godalming United Church, St John's Church Milford, The Unitarian Church, Churches Together in Godalming, The MJ Hindley Trust through Marshalls solicitors, The Erica Leonard Trust, Godalming Lions Club, and Bucknill Masonic Lodge, Godalming. Thank You so much!

The Cellar Art Group has started again after a break. No special talent is needed, and all are welcome to come along, join in and enjoy yourself! Materials are provided and guidance is available. Come and join this free, friendly, social and therapeutic group. It is hoped that members will also take part in workshops at Watts Gallery as in previous years, and have visits to art galleries and exhibitions. Contact Mandy at The Cellar for more details.

Jottings

The importance of friendship. Some years ago, a group from our church made a pilgrimage to a church in the Austrian alps – an idyllic mountainside setting; for a very special ecumenical service. None of the host group spoke English, and only three of us spoke German, but we all agreed that what we had in common was that we all worship the same God, and that we could all smile and shake hands in friendship. We all come from different backgrounds, and we all have differing gifts and problems, joys and sorrows. But at the Cellar, all of us are part of a special family, and meet on equal terms, as God's children, in need of love – and with love to give. Jesus said: "...where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18 v20)
A wonderful promise indeed!

Volunteers are always needed at The Cellar – contact Debbie or Emma if you give a little time each week.

If you do any online shopping – supermarkets, Amazon, ebay, holidays, insurance or any other website, please consider registering with www.easyfundraising.org.uk. A couple of extra clicks when you order goods mean that The Cellar will receive a small percentage of the value of your purchase at no cost to you – it all adds up!

This newsletter was written by Jacky Beale and it is hoped that it has been of interest and has helped you to keep in touch with The Cellar family. Do contact me if you know of anyone else who would like to receive it by email.
